Output Description (including: elements of innovation, expected impact and transferability potential)

Collection and analysis of interesting practices in at least six European member states about the strengthening of global citizenship skills in curricular activities, for the monitoring of their impact on pupils' competences. Both benchmark framework, methodologies and results could be transferred to other geographical and educational contexts.

Please describe the division of work, the tasks leading to the production of the intellectual output and the applied methodology

T1. P4 will define the draft of a common form for collecting the practices, considering it has to include selection criteria, approaches, methodologies and didactic tools for every interesting practices included, as well as the effects of each practice on students' global citizenship competences. Then the partners will examine the draft and will give a feedback, so to achieve a shared final version.

T2. Collection by all national team of at least 5 interesting practices which will be engaged in selecting, collecting and commenting the practices.

T3. Translation of the materials in English from national languages so to allow the transnational exchange of the collecting practices and promote their transferability across Europe.

T4. P4 will collect the EN versions of national practices, classifying them on the basis of their objectives, characteristics and education level, so to give birth to of a European report (draft version).

T5. The draft will be examined by partners who will give feedback for improvement; then P4 will amend/integrate the report according to partners' feedback and finally will elaborate the final version of the report.
